Dear Alien,

I am writing from planet Earth. I love learning about the culture of aliens. Earth has mountains, plains, plateaus, valleys, etc. It has oceans, seas, rivers, ponds and lakes. It has one moon. Does your planet have features like these?

Earth is home to unique cultures, traditions and beliefs. It has different languages, art, music and food habits.

I have millions of questions spinning in my mind. Where do you live? Which planet do you live in? How do you live? Do you have traditions and religions like humans? Do you have any other forms of life on your planet, like animals, insects and reptiles on our Earth?

Thanking you. Your friend from Earth.

Through interactive activities and practical observations, students had the opportunity to practise basic mathematical skills while exploring the store.

The experience encouraged them to understand that mathematics is not limited to textbooks—it is an essential part of our daily lives.
The visit was a wonderful blend of learning, exploration, observation, and fun, making mathematics more meaningful and enjoyable for the students.

FIELD VISIT

TEMPLE

Temple Field Trip – A Journey of Peace & Values
21.07.2026

The temple field trip offered our young learners a calm, meaningful, and enriching experience beyond the classroom. The visit introduced children to the serene surroundings of a place of worship and helped them appreciate the importance of peace, cleanliness, respect, and kindness.

The children removed their footwear before entering, walked quietly through the premises, and admired the beautiful white marble artwork and peaceful surroundings. The visit also provided an opportunity to learn about appropriate behaviour in places of worship and the importance of being respectful towards everyone.

Good Values We Learnt

- Walk slowly and calmly; do not run.
- Keep our hands to ourselves.
- Maintain cleanliness and discipline.
- Think peaceful and positive thoughts.
- Be kind, respectful, and considerate towards everyone.

The field trip was a gentle reminder that learning also happens through experiences, observations, and values we practise in everyday life.

“Walk with peace, speak with kindness, and carry good values wherever you go.”

LEARNING TRIGONOMETRY BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

MATH FIELD VISIT
09.08.2026

The Grade 10 students of Surana Vidyalaya participated in an enriching Mathematics field trip on 17 June 2026. The activity was designed to help students understand the practical applications of trigonometry by connecting classroom concepts with real-life situations.

Working in small groups, students explored how heights and distances can be measured indirectly using trigonometric ratios. They also collected and analysed data, integrating concepts from Mathematics, artificial intelligence, and Information Technology. The hands-on experience strengthened their observation, analytical thinking, collaboration, and problem-solving skills.

STEM & ROBOTICS LAB – INSPIRING INNOVATION

“Imagine. Create. Innovate. The future begins with curious minds.”

Our school has introduced a dedicated STEM and Robotics Lab to provide students with an engaging, hands-on environment where learning goes beyond textbooks. The lab is designed to nurture curiosity, creativity, innovation, problem-solving, and scientific thinking.
Through, practical activities, experiments, coding, robotics, and to project-based learning, students get opportunities to explore concepts from Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics in an interactive way.

They learn to design, build, test, analyse, and improve their ideas while developing valuable skills for the future.
The initiative encourages students to become innovators, thinkers, creators, and confident problem-solvers, preparing them to navigate a technology-driven world with knowledge and imagination.
